Science for the People Teach-In
McGill Campus
Roddick Gates
Monday April 15th
3:30 PM

Science student workers have a unique role to play in labour struggles. Join Science for the People's teach-in on the picket line for an update on the strike against McGill and a discussion of how scientists can organize to seize the means of knowledge production to use our science for the common good.
